

Relais San Pietro in Polvano

Our readers love this place, it is a paradise high in the hills. The adorable Signor Protti and his wife run this enchanting hotel with their son and daughter-in-law and the care they lavish on the place is apparent at every turn. Bedrooms have shutters and gorgeous old rafters, wide wrought-iron beds, elegant painted wardrobes, rugs on tiled floors, straw hats on white walls. For cool autumn nights there are cream sofas and a log fire. The pool, on a terrace just below, must have one of the best views in Tuscany: keep your head above water and you are rewarded with the blue-tinted panorama for which Italy is famous. There is a restaurant for guests serving delicious local food and their own olive oil; bread comes fresh from the bread oven. In summer you dine at beautifully dressed tables on a terrace overlooking the gardens, full of cool recesses and comfy chairs, and the olive-grove'd valley beyond. An atmosphere of luxurious calm and seclusion prevails, and your hosts are a delight. For those who choose to venture forth, note that gates close at midnight. Children over 12 welcome. Minimum stay two nights.
